about

Cyndi Santacroce joined 1847Financial in 2016 as Executive Assistant to Adam Sherman. She has worked with Adam since 2004, providing responsive personal service to the 1847 Private Client Group's clients. Cyndi earned an Associate's degree in Paralegal Studies and has worked in the financial services industry as an administrator and executive assistant for more than twenty years.

Cyndi handles many responsibilities for our team, including client onboarding, new account set-up and account maintenance. She is a great asset to our firm and an outstanding advocate for our clients.

Cyndi lives in Washington Township, New Jersey with her partner Joe and their son, Joey.
