about

Ben Feld joined 1847Financial in May of 2017, after completing his Masters in Communication from Drexel in 2016, and is a 2013 graduate of Drexel's Sport Management program where he was also a member of their Division I Men's Golf team.

After joining an experienced team headed by Adam Sherman, Ben has spent his first three years with the group developing a practice focused on securing bright financial futures for young families and young professionals utilizing a planning process incorporating advanced investment guidance and sophisticated insurance strategies.

Ben currently holds his Life & Health, Series 7 and Series 66 licenses and is working toward obtaining his Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC®) designation through The American College of Financial Services.

Ben lives in Center City, Philadelphia with his fiancé Jessica, where he also serves as the Head Men's Golf Coach at Drexel University. He is actively involved in the Philadelphia golf community as well as with Maccabi USA. When he is not assisting clients or coaching, Ben enjoys playing competitive golf, spending time with family and cooking.
